

Islip, NY – The Islip Town Board recently awarded several high school students the Charles Pulaski Memorial Environmental Awards for their outstanding work in preserving the environment.

The awards are given out in honor of Charles Pulaski, an Islip resident who in the 1970s dedicated himself to preserving the natural world in the Town.

Pictured (left to right) are Islip Town Councilman Steve Flotteron; Deputy Town Clerk Patricia Curci; Colin Cox-Steiner, 1st place winner from Bayport-Blue Point High School; Town Supervisor Phil Nolan; Michael Phalen, 2nd place winner from Islip High School; Councilman Gene Parrington; Rachel Haberstroh, 3rd place winner from Bay Shore High School; Councilman John Edwards; and Councilwoman Trish Bergin-Weichbrodt.